

2004 ARROWHEAD ZINFANDEL

100% Zinfandel

Appellation: Sonoma
Production: 431 cases
Alcohol: 15.3% ABV

Tasting Notes - Sweet, concentrated components of cherries and raspberries complimented by a spicy, peppery finish. In blind tastings it's commonly mistaken for a Syrah.

*"I feel that this vineyard offers one of the most dynamic Zinfandels around; dark and very balanced. Even though it was only planted in 1996, at 400 feet in elevation, the fruit comes off more "old vine" like than the vineyards age would lead you to believe. The volcanic rock soil, Cooke clone, organic farming, and cropping at two tons per acre combine to further enhance this effect." – Jeff Cohn
