

2009 Dusi Vineyard Zinfandel

100% Zinfandel

Appellation: Paso Robles

Production: 258 Cases

Alcohol: 15.2%

Retail: $35

Tasting Notes: Located in the west side of Paso Robles, this old head trained vineyard produces the most intense, spicy raspberry, blackberry, black cherry, cracked pepper infused explosively aromatic wine. The palate is loaded with blackberry pie filling, wet stones, licorice, black tea and hints of garrigue.

Pair With: Chicken galantine, rotisserie chicken, pasta dishes with savory sauces, sausage, roast beef or lightly truffled dishes.

Drink now to 6 years

"As rich and full bodied as this wine is, it remains light on its feet and stays on course. What I love about Zinfandel from Paso Robles is that you can actually taste the sunshine in each glass."

- Jeff Cohn