

2009 Rockpile Vineyard Haley's

100% Syrah

Appellation: Rockpile
Production: 100 Cases
Alcohol: 15.5%
Retail: $60

Tasting Notes: This wine is a soaring skyscraper of aromas and flavors, layers of waves splashing across the rocky beach. Black cherry and dark chocolate swirled with blueberry and wet stone in the mix. A true experience in not just Syrah, but Rockpile Syrah, from beginning to end.

Pair With: Wild game of both fowl & meat, roasted leg of lamb, lentils, sausage, pâtés, truffles, anything off the grill or young, creamy, goat cheese.

Hold to drink in 2 to 15 years

"2009 had very low yield thus the vineyard offered us fruit which has taken Rockpile to the next level. As rich and intense and beautiful to look at as this wine has been in the past, this vintage takes it up a notch. Both aromatically and in flavor this vintage expresses the terroir of Rockpile more razor sharp than ever before."

- Jeff Cohn